Sail-or Bill Mc-Coy, was a dar-ing sail-or boy, His ship got wreck'd a-Will-iam's boss said "Bill," a Captain's job you'll fill, Up-on a ship bound while, on a Fee-jee-ee-jee Isle. He led a sav-age life, and North, to-day it's sail-ing forth. A Cap-tain's job is fine, but hun-ted with a knife, He said I'll tell you a-bout it don't tell my wife.

Bill said, "I de-cline," I'll take half pay as a sail-or on that ship of mine.
